"The Perfect Gift" truly is the perfect gift!

When six-year-old Josiah wants to purchase a gift for his dad, but lacks the funds, a local storekeeper provides a chance for Josiah to learn what true giving is all about.

With inviting illustrations, children follow the true story of the partnership between plump

Mr. Earnest and the young boy, illuminating principles of life as they come full circle.

"The Perfect Gift" inspires children and encourages readers of all ages.

Author, Susan Huppert, collaborates with illustrator, Rachel White, to provide a value-based work of art and literature capturing the attention of children as they turn each page. Wiggly children still themselves as they await the outcome of Josiah's dilemma. This meaningful story will benefit any home or educational setting.

"The Perfect Gift" fulfills the mission of Homegrown Publications, LLC, to encourage, challenge, and inspire readers.
